/ 25SEP16 / 1615 UTC

VISA INFORMATION

Italy (IT)

Additional Information:

- Alien residents of Italy holding expired Residence Permits or a copy of an expired Residence Permit are permitted to re-enter Italy, provided also holding a receipt issued by the Italian Post Office or Police Department, confirming new permit has been applied for. Applications for renewal must be made within 60 days of expiring, otherwise immigration could refuse re-entry, even if holding confirmation of application. Holders copies of an expired Residence Permit also require a statement, stating that they are holding a copy.
Residence Permits that include a named child must be valid when traveling with the named child.
- This does not apply when transiting through Switzerland.
